A message from Jane Welty:
I have some exciting news I would like to share... This February I will be heading to Guatemala on a short-term mission trip... through Impact Ministries. We will be heading to Tactic, a small town... assisting in the development of Christian education. There are many ways you could help... financially or spiritually. This trip comes out to around $3000 a person. If you feel led to support us, I know we as a group will be grateful. I am beyond excited to serve the Lord through this amazing opportunity.
With much love,
Jane
